

(September 21, 2015) - Ampy McIntyre, has joined Valenti Builders, Inc. as Vice President - Director of Marketing. With more than 15 years in the industry, Ampy brings marketing and strategic client development experience to the firm.

In her new role, she will work in close collaboration with the Valenti Leadership team to implement brand standards, target strategic industry partnerships and execute long range business development plans.

In her previous roles, Ampy served as Marketing and Business Development Manager for design firms in Chicago. Ampy's experience includes marketing and brand management, strategy, business planning and reporting, and strategic client pursuit. Ampy currently serves as the board secretary of the Chicago chapter of the Society for Marketing Professional Services (SMPS).